

Elements of Worship Coordinator

McFarlin Memorial United Methodist Church's mission is to Change Lives that Change the World. We seek persons who will live out our staff values of faith, integrity, openness, courage, compassion, accountability, resilience, patience and excellence.

McFarlin also recognizes that God made all creation and saw that it was good. As a diverse people of God who bring special gifts and evidences of God's grace to the unity of the Church and to society, we are called to be faithful to the example of Jesus' ministry to all persons. As a church that values the participation of all people at all levels of ministry, McFarlin seeks to be a place where all persons are open, welcoming, fully accepting, and supporting of all other persons, enabling them to participate fully in the life of the church, the community, and the world. We are seeking two, part-time coordinators of Elements of Worship.

Job Specific Responsibilities

- Make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world
- Coordinate the Elements of Worship ministry- a Sunday morning worship experience during the 11 am worship services for K-3rd graders
- Recruit and equip volunteers to lead Elements
- Train volunteers in Safe Sanctuaries policies and practices

Qualifications:

- Relevant education, training and/or experience in church or educational profession
- Proficiency in the use of all Microsoft Office applications, email, online video conferencing, and other digital tools

This is a part-time position of 5 hours/week on Sunday mornings and reports to the Director of Children and Family Ministries. McFarlin seeks a person who is relational, organized, efficient, collaborative, motivated and gifted in offering faith formation for children and families to join our team in carrying out God's mission to Change Lives that Change the World. McFarlin Memorial United Methodist Church offers competitive compensation and benefits.
